Identification Number: C00394593
Filing period: January 1, 2005 to March 31, 2005

Ms. Brady,

This letter is in response to your inquiries dated July 12, 2005, related to the April quarterly report of David Vitter for US Senate.

- 1) Procedures for obtaining employer/occupation information from contributors in excess of $200 during an election cycle.
 - a) Original solicitation includes clear and conspicuous request for contributor's name, mailing address, occupation and employer, and a statement that the information is needed to comply with federal campaign law.
 - b) Upon receipt of the contribution, a follow up phone call (oral request) is made to the contributor within five days requesting missing information without soliciting a contribution. This oral request informs the contributor that the information is needed in order to comply with federal law for reporting such information.
 - c) If no response from the contributor is received after 10 days, a written request is mailed. The written request (see attached) includes clear and conspicuous request for the contributor information, without soliciting a contribution, and informs the contributor of the requirements of federal law for reporting such information.
 - c) Upon obtaining missing information from the contributor, the data is entered into the filing software and is included in the next filing (as an amended memo entry).
